Korean Pop Art

By DunbarJones, on October 1st, 2010

Riding on the wave of rising interest in Korean Art, a K Pop-Art explosion will hit SBin Art Plus this October. Korean Pop Art will feature the works of 6 Korean contemporary artists in a myriad of art mediums that show the creative depth of expressions of each artist.

The line-up includes Bahk Seon Ghi, Goh Geun Ho, Lee Jae Hoon, Lee Jae Sam, Lee Sung O and Park Insane each of whom has enjoyed international success having been exhibited and acquired by collectors from across the globe from Tokyo, to Shanghai, to Dubai, to London and Los Angeles.

Goh Geun Ho's steel sculptures strike a nostalgic chord with resemblance of toys before the digital age; Lee Jae Sam's scenes in the quietness of charcoal; Lee Sung O's interpretation honouring a great master presented through a mixed medium of clay on canvas; and Bahk Seon Ghi's installations stand solidly in a boldness of black or a serene white, juxtaposed against a stark background.

Korean Pop Art runs from 30 September through to 31 October. The gallery is open from 11.00 am to 7.00 pm from Tuesdays to Saturdays, 11.00 am to 5.00 pm on Sundays and public holidays and is closed on Mondays. The exhibition is held at SBin Art Plus at 140 Hill St. MICA Building #01-10/11/12 Singapore 179369. Contact number: 6883 2001. <http://www.sbinartplus.com>.

About SBin Art Plus

With its focus on art that has the potential to increase in value and popularity on the international art scene, SBin Art Plus is dedicated to providing discerning Asian and international collectors with the best of modern and contemporary art by eminent and emerging artists from around the world.

Priced from S$7,000.00 to S$1 million, the gallery's depth and diversity of art offerings include works of sculpture, painting and installations in various mediums. These include "old master" collections from Indonesia, contemporary art from South East Asia, as well as works by renowned "Western" artists such as Fernando Botero, Antoni Tapies and Marc Quinn. The gallery also provides assistance in the sale and acquisition of world-class artwork from international private collections.
